Transfer:

Any horse or filly nominated to the Little Brown Jug or Jugette can be transferred to the Old Oaken Bucket or Buckette if a change is made in the gait by making up the equal amount in payment. The same conditions prevail for any horse or filly nominated to the Old Oaken Bucket or Buckette to transfer to the Little Brown Jug or Jugette.

Racing Conditions for the Jug:

The track retains the right to conduct the event in a single dash all purses will be paid 50-25-12-8-5% pay off. The Little Brown Jug Society establishes that the race will be eliminations and a final only.

The Little Brown Jug Society shall determine the number of horses that will start in each division not to exceed 10. If one division the event will be raced two heats of one mile. The first heat will go for $50,000. The top eight finishers will return for the final heat. Post positions for final heat to be determined by order of finish of first heat with the winner of the second heat being the winner of the Little Brown Jug. Final Heat purse shall be divided as follows: The winner of the Final will receive 50% of the purse for that race; one percent (1%) of the purse of that race will be paid to the owners of each finalist finishing 6th through last including horses that are declared for the final. All horses must officially start the race in order to be eligible for their portion of the one percent. The remainder of the purse will be divided 50-24-16-10% for horses finishing second through fifth.

The track retains the right to conduct the event in a single dash.

Accidents in the Eliminations. If because of an accident in the elimination race, an insufficient number of horses finish the elimination and qualify for the final, the remaining finalist(s) and "also eligible" will be selected (in the preference of the highest earnings in that year as determined by USTA records at time of declaration) from the remaining non-offending horses in that elimination where the accident occurred.

Eliminations for the Jug:

If the field is divided into two groups, the divisions will be raced for $50,000 each and the remainder of the total purse will go to the second heat. The first four horses in each division will qualify for the second heat with the winner being the winner of the Little Brown Jug. Post positions for the second heat to be determined by order of finish and blind draw of divisions. Although only four horses return out of the first and second divisions, five monies will be paid each and every elimination. The all monies will be divided 50-25-12-8-5%. Should any horse scratch for the second heat an Also Eligible (AE) would be included. Also Eligible first choice will be chosen by highest career earnings.

Special Elimination Conditions for the Jug:

If there are three divisions, then three elimination heats will be held. Five monies will be paid in each elimination heat, but only three from each elimination heat will return for the final heat. Post positions for final heat to be determined by order of finish in divisions and blind draw of divisions. The first three elimination heats will be raced for $50,000 each. The final heat will be raced for remainder of the total purse with the winner being declared the winner of the Little Brown Jug. The track retains the right to conduct the event in divisions, with each division racing for an equal share of the purse. All eliminations will be paid 50-25-12-8-5 percent. Should any horse scratch for the second heat an Also Eligible (AE) would be included. Also Eligible first choice will be chosen by highest career earnings.

Racing Conditions for the Jugette:

The track retains the right to conduct either or both events in a single dash all purses will be paid 50-25-12-8-5% pay off. The Little Brown Jug Society establishes that the race will be eliminations and a final only.

Should any horse scratch for the second heat an Also Eligible (AE) would be included. Also Eligible first choice will be chosen by highest career earnings.

Limited Field for the Jug and Jugette:

If more than 24 horses declare in to start, only the (24) twenty-four horses with the highest lifetime earnings will be allowed to start. Horses eligible as of February 15, 2022 will have preference over any Supplemental entries.

All paid in fees will be refunded to those not permitted to start.

Performance Requirement:

In order to start a horse in the Little Brown Jug or the Jugette, a horse is required to have a race line or a qualifying line of 2:00 or better the year of the race.

Special Supplemental Declaration:

Three-year-old pacers not eligible as of February 15, 2022 may, with a payment of $45,000, supplement to the Little Brown Jug. Supplemental declaration fees are due with the intent to start in the Race Office by 10 a.m. five (5) days before date of race (Sundays counted).

Three-year-old filly pacers not eligible as of February 15, 2022 may, with a payment of $15,000, supplement to the Jugette. Supplemental declaration fees are due with the intent to start in the Race Office by 10 a.m. five (5) days before date of race (Sundays counted).

Detention/Retention:

All starters are subject to the retention policy of the Delaware County Agricultural Society.

Notice:

USTA Rule 12, Section 4 provides: "Failure to make any payment required by the conditions constitutes an automatic withdrawal from the event." The Little Brown Jug Society will construe payment to require that cash or check duly honored upon presentation to be received at the time specified in USTA Rule 12, Section 2. If a check is not duly honored upon presentation, the horse becomes ineligible to race, or if it races, to participate in the purse.

Rules:

This track is licensed by the State of Ohio Racing Commission and operates under the rules of The Ohio State Racing Commission in conjunction with The United States Trotting Association. The Little Brown Jug Society shall have the final decision on all matters pertaining to the racing of these stakes.
